C. J. Field attended the circus in Randleman yesterday.

John Blair, of Winston, spent Sunday at his home and returned yesterday.

E. W. Lyon, of Greensboro, arrived in the city today on the south-bound train.

Mrs. A. W. McAlister and children, of Greensboro, passed through this morning en route to Salisbury.

Mr. C. A. Hamner left today on the south-bound train.

Miss Venetia Smith's millinery store is closed today on account of the death of her brother Turner, of Bessimer City, who died yesterday of heart failure. The store will be open tomorrow.

Washington street is getting to be one of the prettiest streets in town. Several new houses have been built on this street in the past few months. Messrs. A. S. Ellison and John Schreest are having new fences put around their lots on this street.

John Hedrick and conductor Royal had a dispute last night on the train going north, in which Hedrick drew his pistol and kept the conductor out of the car until he got to High Point, where Chief Bennett was called and Hedrick was arrested and put in the "lock-up" until trial today. The trial was postponed until tomorrow so the conductor and porter could be present. Hedrick gave bond and was released.

A notice was received here yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Donahue Smith, from their son John, of Bessimer City announcing the death of their son Turner, who died very suddenly yesterday afternoon of heart failure. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Vaughn left today for that place to attend the funeral there today.

THE TEAGUE FOUNDRY.

Reorganized and a Meeting Held Today By Its Officers.

The matter of reorganizing the Teague Foundry, which was burned here last year, recently agitated in the columns of the Telegram has materialized and yesterday the reorganization was effected. The Greensboro Industrial and Immigration Association is entitled to much credit in effecting the said reorganization and at a meeting of the Teague Foundry officers held today the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That, inasmuch as the officer of the Industrial and Immigration Association have given us very material assistance in promoting and organizing our company, we feel that it is only right and proper at this, our first meeting, to give public expression to our appreciation of their efforts and to call to the attention of our citizens generally the successful work of this association in developing the manufacturing industries of our city.

Pleasant Things About the Benbow.

In the last issue of the Sporting Life Mr. Morse, who accompanied the Boston to Greensboro, says some nice things about Greensboro and their stay here. He says some very complimentary things about the Benbow. Among other things he says:

"The Boston players have been staying at the Benbow House, where Manager Frank Morton has not spared any effort to make their stay enjoyable. His hostelry compares well with any in any city of this size in this country."

"This, coming from the City of Beans, should add additional weight to the compliment."

Man of Mettle.

"I say, Bridget, is your beau a gold or a silver man?" asked the head of the house.

"Sure, he's neither," answered the cook, who was in love with a policeman, "he's what you call a copper man, sur."—Yonkers Statesman.

Will Strike Tomorrow.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 5—Indications point to a strike by ten thousand diggers in the Monongahela River mines tomorrow.

URGED IMMEDIATE ACTION.

Members of The Foreign Relations Committee.

HOT SPEECHES IN THE SENATE.

President's Message Completed And Signed—Congress is Again Becoming Restive.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 5—The president had many visitors this morning from both houses of congress and the forthright message was the chief topic discussed. The callers included Senators Allison and Frye and Representatives Dingley, Cannon, Adams and Grosvenor. None of them would express an opinion as to the contents of the message.

COMPLETED AND SIGNED.

Washington, April 5—The president completed and signed his message to congress today. It will only hint at armed intervention and that not immediately but will ask Congress for more time on the Cuban question. A forecast of the message is disappointing to both peace lovers and those who want war.

PLANS FOR MOBILIZING.

Washington, April 5—The war department has prepared plans for mobilizing the regular army in Chickamauga national park, near Chattanooga, Tenn.

THE TEXAS SAILS.

Brooklyn, April 5—The battleship Texas sails this afternoon to join the flying squadron at Hampton Roads and will probably reach its destination tomorrow night. She was stripped for action.

THREATEN TO DESERT.

Washington, April 5—Two thousand sailors of different fleets have sent word to President McKinley that they will desert unless the Maine disaster is avenged. The movement originated among a man-of-war's men at Dry Tortugas.

THE EMERGENCY FUND.

Washington, April 5—Thirty-four million of the fifty million dollar emergency fund has already been expended.

SIGSBEE'S STATEMENT.

Washington, April 5—Captain Sigsbee has been ordered to appear before the house committee on foreign relations today and will make a strong statement to the effect that in his opinion (not of his knowledge) the Maine was blown up by the Spaniards.

GONE AFTER GENERAL LEE.

Washington, April 5—Members of the house were informed late today that vessels have been dispatched to Havana to take General Lee and other consular officers away and all Americans who desire to leave.

SPEECHES IN THE SENATE.

Washington, April 5—Senator Turpie in his speech today said the indictments against Spain and her wrongs against us were sufficiently long and must be wiped out by war. Senator Harris spoke for Cuban independence and for armed intervention. Kenney is now speaking to the same effect. Chandler said the United States should declare war against Spain.

URGED IMMEDIATE ACTION.

Washington, April 5—At the meeting of the Senate foreign relations committee today many members urged immediate action and a report on the resolutions immediately. Others thought the consuls in Cuba should be given time to leave and the president be given time to prepare a message.

WARMING UP.

Washington, April 5—There is an inclination in the foreign relations committee to adopt Senator Frye's resolution for intervention and close the war in Cuba, to compel the withdrawal of Spain and secure the ultimate independence of Cuba.

THE FORAKER RESOLUTION.

Washington, April 5—The Foraker resolution agreed upon by the senate committee on foreign relations, providing for recognition of Cuban independence and armed intervention to maintain it, has been severely criticized by a lawyer in the senate as one that cannot stand legal criticism.

A compromise resolution may be agreed upon. The general idea is that it will be passed after the president's message is read. The conservative element of the senate will plead for more deliberation.

It is possible that the question will be fully debated at least in the house whose rules of procedure are more directly under the control of Speaker Reed.

In any event Spain has but a few days in which to determine her course, and relinquishing Cuba seems to be her only chance of escaping our vengeance.

IRELAND CLOSETED WITH DAY.

Washington, April 5—Archbishop Ireland was closeted with assistant Secretary of State Day today. Any information in regard to the conference was denied.

Only One Hundred Drowned.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Ridgeway, Ill., April 5—The gap in the levee at Shawneetown is one hundred feet wide and is widening. Yesterday's reports are greatly exaggerated. Conservative reports state that only one hundred are missing. Every store is inundated. The loss of property, aside from loss of crops, will reach half a million dollars.

Powers Want Peace.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Vienna, April 5—Austria and a majority of the powers have charged their ambassadors at Washington to offer their good offices to secure maintenance of peace in the interest of humanity.

Rumor of Dreyfus' Death.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, April 5—It is rumored here that Dreyfus, who was banished to Devil's Island by the French government, has died in prison.

Death of Mr. W. B. Farrar.

Mr. William B. Farrar died yesterday afternoon at half past six o'clock at his residence in this city. Services were held over his remains at the Methodist church and his body was laid to rest at four o'clock in Greene Hill cemetery.

William Bingham Farrar was born at Carbondale, in Chatham county on the eleventh day of February 1836, and was therefore, over sixty-two years of age. In 1864 he married Miss Mattie Watson, daughter of the late Dr. David Watson, who survives him. Mr. Farrar moved to Greensboro in 1868 and engaged in the jewelry business. He continued in this business up to his death and made his firm known as one of the most substantial and reliable in Greensboro.

Mr. Farrar was a true gentleman and a member of the Methodist church. In his last illness he expressed no fear of death and often spoke of it as a rest and escape from pain and care. By his death Greensboro loses one of her best citizens and one whose place it will be difficult to fill. The bereaved wife and family have the sympathy of the Telegram and a host of friends in this their hour of sorrow.

"The Land of Gold."

"The Land of Gold" was played last night by the Merry Makers to a very appreciative audience. It was a very creditable performance all the way through and much hearty applause attested the fact.

J. C. Robinson, as Judge Ananias Lovetoddy, was inimitable, and his clever work was refreshingly free from the straining after an impossible effect. Harold Holmes, as Nat Weber, played his role with the easy naturalness of the veteran stageplayer. Mr. Holmes is young in years, but talent and careful training have combined to make him a most accomplished actor.

Miss Childress, as Triss, deserves special mention for the very excellent manner in which she sustained that character.—Greenville, (S. C.) Ex.

"Wang" Last Night.

Although the weather was bad last night the manner in which "Wang" was presented was just the opposite. It is a good, humorous and pleasing little opera and was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

The playing of Wang, the Regent of Siam, by J. W. Kingsly, was especially good.

The parts of the widow of the French consul and Matava, Crown Prince, of Siam, were most admirably sustained.

The two little girls—baby Irene and baby Fenton—sang well and won the hearts of the audience by their graceful dancing.

The singing of all the players deserves special mention.

The company will give a benefit performance tomorrow night and will be in many ways equal to their presentation of Wang.

THE POPE NOT DISCOURAGED

The Attitude of Mr. McKinley as to Mediation.

ENGLAND REFUSES TO MEDIATE.

Another Report Says the Pope's Terms are Acceptable to Both Governments.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Rome, April 5—The Pope received a cablegram this morning from President McKinley declining the offers of the Pope for mediation between the United States and Spain. The message also contains virtually a declaration of the president's policy in which he expressed himself as being extremely sensible of the initiative taken by the Pontiff, but that it was impossible to overcome the prejudices, even though unjust, entertained by a majority of the American people against the Vatican's intervention in the political affairs and that he opposed war but cannot go against the sentiment of the nation which demands the independence of Cuba.

WILL COMPRISE ARMISTICE.

Madrid, April 5—Minister of foreign affairs Gullon says the Spanish government has made the Pope's mediation conditional upon the honor and integrity of Spain being safeguarded. Whatever the plan of mediation may be it is certain that it will comprise a cessation of the war in Cuba.

ENGLAND REFUSES.

London, April 5—This government refuses to mediate between Spain and the United States.

ON WHAT AUTHORITY?

Rome, April 5—It is authoritatively stated that the Pope's terms of mediation are such as are acceptable to the United States and Spain.

POPE NOT DISCOURAGED.

London, April 5—A special this afternoon to the News says: The Pope is not discouraged because of the attitude of President McKinley, and has cabled the archbishop to renew his energies.

Better Roads.

We would like to urge upon our county commissioners the importance and almost the necessity of instituting some radical change in the condition of our county roads. Mecklenburg, Wake, Durham and other counties are macadamizing their roads. Why should not Guilford?

The present mode of working the roads of Guilford county is an improvement over the former methods it is true, but it is like pouring money in a rat hole.

The road is improved for a few weeks, when it lapses into the same old rut. Macadamizing would be more expensive than filling the holes with mud, but the expense saved in road working would soon balance accounts. For a hundred and fifty years now the people living on this portion of the earth's surface have been content to go over the same old roads. The forest trees were cut down, a few years of waiting sufficed to rot down the stumps and that was all that was thought necessary.

Conservation is always the wisest policy, but lagging cannot be called by that name. Next to good schools good roads are the greatest need of a community. It does seem that the farmers have pulled a dozen sticks of wood to to town often enough to know what it would mean to haul a load four times the size with more ease. This is what macadamized roads would mean. We understand that the commissioners are considering the purchase of a rock crusher. The wisest plan is to get it. The people want it. It will be the first step towards securing up to date thoroughfares for our county.—High Point Citizen.

Will Go to New York.

Mr. Bynum Glenn, who has been doing reportorial work for the Journal, has accepted a position with a railroad company in New York and will leave in a day or two to enter upon the duties of his position. Bynum is a clever young man and The Sentinel is predicting that he will win success. He has this paper's very best wishes.—Winston Sentinel.

Kansas Willing to Send 50,000 Men.

Topeka, Kan., April 3.—Gov. Leedy is ready to call a special session of the Kansas Legislature to appropriate $100,000 for war purposes. He says Kansas will send 50,000 men to the front in forty-eight hours, and that he is ready to lead a Kansas regiment.

STORE CHANGES HANDS.

And We Heartily Welcome the New Proprietor.

The Sample Brown Mercantile Company, have sold their shoe store in this city to Mr. S. B. Norris, of Raleigh, who, arrived last night to take charge. We welcome Mr. Norris and bespeak for him a share of the patronage of our citizens. The following notice of Mr. Norris' coming we clip from the Morning Post:

Mr. S. B. Norris has purchased the shoe store of Sample S. Brown, of Greensboro, and will take charge of the business at once and will conduct one of the most extensive and attractive shoe stores in the State in that progressive town. Mr. Norris left last night for Greensboro to take charge of the business, take an inventory and prepare to open the new store at an early date.

Mr. Norris is one of Raleigh's most successful and progressive business men, and while we regret to lose him we congratulate Greensboro upon securing him as a part of her business community. He is a thoroughly live and up-to-date hustler, and Greensboro may depend upon it that his establishment will be conducted in the best of style and will contain nothing but the latest and best. Mr. Norris' family will remain in Raleigh until he makes arrangements for them to make their home in Greensboro.

TOURISTS AND BULL FIGHTS.

After making all due allowances for the tone in which it was uttered there still remains much food for thought and rigorous self-searching in the following:

According to the Mexico Herald a syndicate has been formed in that city for the purpose of giving bull fights between lions and bulls, and possibly between a bull and a Bengal tiger. Herr Carl Hagenbach, the famous trainer of Hamburg, has been commissioned to select the animals, African lions and Bengal tigers, the fiercest of their kind. In commenting on this enterprise, a Mexican paper throws an interesting side light upon the amusements of tourists from the United States who visit the city of the Aztecs, and for whose special attraction the innovation is particularly intended. Editorially it expresses the hope that "the sensation loving American tourists, including wandering deacons and leaders in chautauquan circles, who come to Mexico to cast off all restraint in one wild final fling before they go to paradise, will welcome this news. They have been the props and pillars of the bull ring, and women who weep over a singed cat cat up north will sit enraptured a whole Sunday afternoon to witness picturesque bull sticking. The only thing that will be lacking after we have seen the Bengal tigers leaping on the backs of agile and fiery Mexican bulls, and the African lions tossed and gored, will be gladiatorial shows such as the Romans delighted in.

There is a certain robust pharisaism in this country which holds that the American is just a little better than anybody else. It firmly believes that the American saint will not only be given a position on the right in the final day, but that he will be assigned to a front pew. Foreigners have been by no means insensible to this attitude. That they should resent it is only natural. That they can resent it to some purpose is easily demonstrated. This is by no means the first time that attention has been called to the fact the American tourist in Mexico City or Madrid goes to the bull fight "just to see what it's like." There is a somewhat suspicious readiness to do as Rome does and foreigners, who are not all fools as some well-wishers under the stars and stripes are wont to believe, are not slow to perceive this. But it is not only in the matter of bull fights that Americans emulate Rome. In certain other particulars they go Rome one or two better.

In Paris it is a matter for much humorous comment that American ladies make use of that larger liberty which is the birthright of the American woman to visit certain places of amusement where the Parisian woman never thinks of going. All of which goes to show that the wings of the average American are not in a much more advanced state of development than those of other people. The American might recognize this with distinct advantage.

The charge is made against Li Hung Chang that in the cession of Port Arthur and Tallenwan to Russia he was bribed. The circumstances are suspicious. Besides Li has incurred the reputation of being more fully in accord with western civilization than any other Chinaman.

The worst misfortune that could possibly befall this country, worse than an unrighteous war, worse than the utter destruction of our commerce or the bombardment of our seaports, would be for its affairs in the present crisis to pass under the control of that carterie of individuals who see in every human contingency only the possibility of increase or the prospect of loss to their private fortunes. Such an outcome would mean the inauguration of a policy and the establishment of a precedent that could only result in the substitution of a spirit of commercialism, increasingly venal and increasingly vulgar, and a deterioration of national feeling that would sooner or later place us at the mercy of any virile nation that might choose to attack us. In the course of human events it is improbable that an occasion will arise demanding more imperatively that we cleave firmly to the right. If we shrink it now that makes it all the more certain that we shall shrink it a quarter of a century hence.

The event may justify the course of Mr. McKinley. At present, whether from the point of view of the simple citizen or of the naval strategist, his course appears open to criticism. His delay is affording Spain an opportunity to mobilize within easy reach of America a formidable fleet of warships and torpedo boats. The nation that strikes first will have a distinct advantage. The issues were made up a week ago. If the president proposes either intervention or a demand for Cuban independence war must surely follow. Under such circumstances it would seem that the wiser course would have been to force the crisis and striking the Spanish fleet in its scattered condition to have destroyed it in detail.

The English press has once more displayed the bear-like grip that it has on conditions in this country by suggesting that in case a Spanish army invades the South that the South may revolt against the Union.

Mr. McKinley has abated no whit of his desire to amble up to the crisis with a porridge bowl in one hand and a spoon in the other.

THE COMMISSIONERS' REPLY.

To "Our Informant" About the Battle Ground Road.

Editors Telegram:—It is not the purpose of this article, or has it been of any other in reference to the Battle Ground road, to discredit any statements made by your informant; but it seems very clear that your informant is not well informed about the matter and so to set him straight, or to try to do so, it seems necessary to make a statement of the matter from beginning to end.

A representative of the Battle Ground company presented a petition to the county commissioners some months ago and asked for the service of an engineer to survey the road and for some terra cotta pipe to take the place of some wooden bridges that had rotted out. The representative stated that the Battle Ground company wished to do some work on the road, and wanted it surveyed so they could do it intelligently. It was ascertained from this representative that they were not ready for the pipe wanted and were not ready to do the work proposed. This being the case, no definite action was taken in regard to the matter further than to tell the representative that the board would take it up at the proper time, (i. e., when they, the Battle Ground company got ready for it) and give them what was asked for; and, in proof of this fact, the commissioners were called upon later for the pipe and the same was furnished by the board of county commissioners, and not by the Terra Cotta company, as your informant states.

The pipe was furnished with the understanding that the same was to be put in by the overseer and his hands on the road in question. The board furnishes lumber and pipe for drains and small bridges to be put in by the road overseers, but have not paid any bills for having this work done, and when this bill referred to by your informant was presented, it was taken up and discussed by the commissioners as other bills are; and one of the commissioners (not the chairman) stated that, as it was the duty of the overseer of the road to put in the pipe, and as we had not heretofore paid any bills of this kind, he did not think it the proper thing to do to establish the precedent. The board agreeing on this, the bill was returned.

How your informant got the information that the Terra-Cotta Co. furnished the pipe is queer. When a representative of the Battle Ground

Company applied for the pipe he was told that the county had a deposit of pipe at Lewis' shop, and was given a written order for same in the name of the board.

Your informant is mistaken when he says the commissioners are not interested in the Battle Ground road. They have promised to give (when they, the Battle Ground Company, get ready for same) all that has been asked and even more. A representative of the Battle Ground was told, when he was furnished the pipe, that the road would be put in as good a condition as it is possible to do with the road machine as soon in the spring as such work can be done properly, and this is still what they intend to do. They will do all they can for the Battle Ground road with the means at hand, and with due consideration for the many other roads throughout the county, but will not do any more or any less work on the Battle Ground road on account of the attack made by your informant. The commissioners, by request of parties interested in the Battle Ground, left their regular work some time last year, and built a new road partly from the Battle Ground to Guilford College, and put all the road in good condition between these points where work was needed.

The commissioners do not think it the duty of the Battle Ground company to keep up or work this road, but, as they or their representative proposed to do so, the commissioners did not object, and told him, as above stated, that when they got ready for the engineer, etc., the same would be furnished.

This is the way the matter stands, as the commissioner remembers and they think they were in about as good condition to remember correctly as was the representative when he presented the petition. Your informant says, "taint so," the public must judge for themselves.

Signed,
W. C. Boren, Chairman.
W. H. Ragan,
Tyre Glenn.

Mr. Glenn signs as to state of facts when application was made for assistance as he was then a member of the board.

TRAMPS FOR ARMY OR NAVY.

Magistrate Pool Says He Will Let Go All Such Prisoners.

Magistrate Pool yesterday announced his intention to discharge any prisoner arraigned before him for vagrancy or begging who would enlist in the army or navy. Charles Averner was arraigned before him by Policeman Tom Hayes of the court squad for begging at Broadway and Twenty-eighth street. Averner said that he was a fireman in the Southern hotel at St. Louis until two weeks ago, when he began making his way east to join the navy. He reached the navy yard too late on Saturday and was advised by another prospective recruit to beg enough money for a supper.

The magistrate looked him over. Averner is a big, well-built, open-faced looking fellow. "Will you enlist if I let you go?" said the magistrate. "That's what I want to do," said Averner, "I am an American citizen. I was naturalized six months ago, and I am not married? I want to fight." "Go ahead and enlist," said the magistrate. Policeman Hayes said he would see that Averner kept his promise. After this, the magistrate said, he would send a policeman to the recruiting station with every prisoner so discharged.—New York Sun.

The War Month.

April is peculiarly a war month in American history. The war of independence was opened in the skirmishes at Lexington on the 19th of April, 1775. The war with Mexico was begun on the banks of the Rio Grande in April in the collision between Taylor and Ampudia. The war of the Union began with the siege of Sumter on the 14th of April, 1861, and ended with the fall of Richmond in April, 1865. It begins to look as if history will again repeat itself.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A New Departure.

Nothing has happened in the realm of fine stock raising in the state, of more importance to stock men than the sales at Greensboro, on Thursday the 7th inst., of the increase of the Oconeechee farm. No better grades of jerseys grown on the green hills of this or any other country, than those grown at Oconeechee, and a rare opportunity is offered at this sale to obtain some of the very "cream" of this famous stock farm. Thursday will be a great day for Greensboro and it promises to be a most interesting occasion for the lovers of fine stock all over this and adjoining States. In the lot offered will be 15 daughters of the famous head of the Oconeechee herd, Meridale Buffer, a pure St. Lambert, the most popular of all the Jersey strains.—News and Observer.

The Dog and the Barber.

Lady (who enters barber-shop with a Skye terrier)—"Mr. Barber, can you cut my doggie's hair?"
"No, I can't; or, rather I won't."
"Indeed! You seem to hold yourself pretty high for one in your position."
"Perhaps I do; but I'm no Skye scraper."—Household Words.

As to Athletics.

Chapel Hill, N. C.
April 3, 1898.

To the Telegram:—I noticed in the Telegram that the trustees of Guilford College were contemplating prohibiting the athletic teams plying away from the college. I am glad to know that the matter was left to the discretion of the faculty. It is quite singular that the trustees of a high grade college should desire to confine athletic sports to the narrow bounds of the college campus. Such restrictions naturally tend to kill an interest in athletics. It is a fact conceded by all broad minded men that athletics play an important part of college education. Such games as baseball and football develop a boys body and make it fit for the habitation of a sound mind. The trustees and faculty should encourage an athletic spirit rather than hinder the efforts made by energetic students. It is a well known fact that athletic teams cannot prosper
when confined to the home grounds, especially when the college is located in the country. There is no incentive whatever for boys to try to have a team of any kind when they know they will not have an opportunity to meet another team in contest. The few hours lost from the call room will be amply repaid by the gain of strong and healthy bodies. I hope that next year Guilford will be able by co-operation of trustees and faculty to put out the best team the college has ever had.
J. E. Foscoe.

Wales to Rescue the Bicycle.

The report that the Prince of Wales is taking lessons in bicycle riding has already roused up the spirits of those interested in the sale of machines and who are looking hopefully at the cycling prospects of the coming season.
If the Prince should take up cycling
even in a casual way it would certainly give a fillip to the pastime which seems to be on the wane among those who rushed at it a year or two ago and rapidly got tired of it when its first novelty had worn off. The question. Are people going to cycle this summer? will depend very much on the confirmation or otherwise of the news from Cannes next week.—
London Court Journal.

THE STATE FARMS.

Supt. Mewborne Says Planting of the Crop Has Begun.

Superintendent Mewborne, of the penitentiary is busy now getting the convicts started on the new crops at the various farms. The planting of corn has already begun on all the farms.
Superintendent Mewborne has 615 bales of cotton of last year's crop left over. This he will put on the market and sell at once.

Very few prisoners will be kept in the prison here. As large a number as possible will be kept at work on the seven prison farms in planting and preparing the large crops which will be planted.

At present the prisoners are distributed as follows: 75 on the railroads; 210 in the prison here, exclusive of the federal prisoners; 114 on the Anson farm, 65 at Castle Hayne, 190 at Caledonia No. 1, 135 at Caledonia No.
2, 145 at Northampton, 53 at Halifax and 169 at Tillery.—Morning Post.

Worse and Worse.

The Raleigh Post says: "The remark of Mr. L. C. Caldwell to the effect that Butler can wrap Shuford around his finger, leads the Statesville Landmark to infer that Caldwell is against Butler. Seems to be a reasonable inference. But there will be a hot time in these parts when Butler turns against Caldwell."

What has come over the dreams of the brilliant, mercurial and unstable
L. C. (?) Last July when he introduced Mr. Butler to a Catawba audience in Newton, he was so profuse in his fawning as to be almost sacrilegious. He compared Mr. Butler to Jesus Christ and said that as a saviour he was second only to the Son of God.—Newton Enterprise.

Should Be Defended.

In the event of war would not the coast towns of Eastern Carolina be in imminent danger, with our inlets unprotected by fortifications? During all our wars from the Revolution down light draft ships of war have troubled the towns lying on our sounds and their tributary waters; and it appears to us that Spain might repeat the history of the past, with the added savagery that belongs to the Spanish character. We hope our representatives will consider the matter and move in our defense, if we are not in error, Ocracoke and Hatteras should both be defended by fortifications.—Elizabeth City Economist.

The President's Message.

Washington, April 3—A newspaper friend of Senator Hanna met the Ohio senator in the Arlington tonight and said:

"Senator, I'll bet you two dollars and a half that the message does not go in before Thursday."

"My son," replied the senator with a twinkle, "I never bet, I never bet." Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, who was standing by, said: "Don't lose your money, sonny; don't lose your money."

That is the situation concerning the president's message tonight. Some say it will be sent in Tuesday, others
name Wednesday and still others mention Thursday and Friday, and so on.
Mr. Bailey, of Texas, the democratic leader of the minority in the house, said this afternoon: "If the president desires time to complete his message, ordinary courtesy demands that we should grant it, but if he is bent on a policy of delay we'll raise the devil."

Jolly Juniors Bicycle Club.

Members of the Jolly Juniors are requested to meet at Annie Mayo's home Thursday April 7th at 4:30 p. m.
for club run to to Pomona. The treasurer will collect 10c from members to buy club ribbon. Badges are being ordered.
May Stewart, Pres.
Edney Ridge, Capt.

"Such a Country."

In Spain's population of 19,000,000
nearly 8,000,000 report "no occupation," 100,000 are registered beggars, and two-thirds of the whole number can neither read nor write. It is no wonder that the colonies of such a country rise in revolt.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Fighting Preachers.

Mr. Chauncey M. Depew said recently: "I find that the most warlike men are the clergymen." This is a very sweeping remark, but it is true that preachers of the gospel of peace
have been among the most heroic soldiers of history.—Atlanta Journal.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into heavy consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it,
he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Notes of The Prowler

"Tweedle-dee and tweedle-dum,"
said the Prowler as he called to pay his respects this morning, "or something like that. 'Now you see it and now you don't' would perhaps express what I mean better, but any way and any how the muddle is still muddled.
The Raleigh Post this morning in flaming headlines says the president's message will go to congress tomorrow
and will make no recommendations.
The News and Observer, of the same date and from the same city, says in headlines almost as large that the message will be sent tomorrow, that it will be a strong document and will contain definite recommendations.
"Now, which is correct? Suppose I will have to accept both statements as correct. Both are excellent papers;
both take a telegraphic news service,
and of course as the news came over the wires it is so. The president is a great man because he is president and perhaps he can do this thing just like the press reports say he will. Even if the president sends no message at all, the situation is grim, grimy and gloomy, and if they fight somebody will be killed. It's awful to think about."

Last night at Wang the Prowler happened in a crowd that had gone out between acts to smoke and overheard them discussing the play. They all liked it and thought it great but the elephant caught the eye of one of them more than did the dancing of the babies. "Boys," he said, "I have seen many elephants in my time and have attended many circuses, but of all the trick elephants I ever saw this one with Wang can get around the stage so easily and has more sense than some folks I know. And then just look how he made that beer get away. I'll tell you, he's the best trained elephant I ever saw." It would have been too cruel to have explained the elephant to him so the crowd slowly broke up.

The Hardware News.

PUBLISHED BY ODELL HARDWARE CO.

EDITORIAL.

This is a period of great uncertainty.
Take the matter of war with Spain,
concerning which there is so much talk.

In the first place, it is uncertain as to whether we shall have war.

And if we do it is uncertain how long it will last, or how much damage will be done—or anything—

Except—no one seems to think it uncertain that we shall finally lick
'em.

That's all.

Then take the weather.

No one knows what will be needed
three days hence—coal vases or refrigerators.

It will not be long before it will be certain that you need refrigerators, ice cream freezers, lawn mowers, garden tools—yes, and hose and lawn sprinklers.

Are you thinking of buying a new wheel this season? If so, you will not make a mistake if you select a Crawford or a Tribune.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Wheels in your head
could not be expected to contribute to your pleasure, but a wheel in the right place, if of the right kind, will afford more pleasure than any other article of similar cost. Be sure that you get the right kind of a wheel. The Crawford is the right kind.

Have you seen the Tribune?

A strictly high grade wheel. If you buy it you won't be sorry.

An economical housekeeper should always buy the best refrigerator that is made, for it will save enough in food in a season to pay for itself. Our National refrigerator is economical in consuming ice, and neither fish, fowl, or anything in the way of eat-ables will spoil in it if you keep a fair amount of ice in it.
